- (d) that any income, benefit, or advantage must be used to advance the charitable purposes of the organisation,
- (e) that no member of the Association, or anyone associated with a member, is allowed to take part in, or influence any decision made by the Association in respect of payments to, or on behalf of, the member or associated person of any income, benefit or advantage, and
- (f) That any payments made to a member of the organisation, or person associated with a member, must be for goods or services that advance the charitable purposes and must be reasonable and relative to payments that would be made between unrelated parties.

11.0 Winding Up

- 11.1 The National Council, at its discretion, may require a Branch or a District Council to be wound up where circumstances arise such that it is no longer viable or feasible to maintain the operation of such Branches or Districts. The National Council, through the Management Committee, shall determine the procedures to followed in winding up a Branch or District Council, having regard for the circumstances and the grounds for winding up the Branch or District Council.
- 11.2 Where a Branch or District has not made constitutional provisions for the disposal of any property or resources owned by the Branch or District, the National Council may make orders as to the disposal of such resources and property. In any event such disposals may not be made to the benefit of the members of that Branch or District.

- 11.3 In the event of the winding up or dissolution of the Association, any residual property or resources shall be transferred to such charitable organisations as the National Council may decide or to such charities as a Judge of the High Court of New Zealand may direct.

12.0 Rules and By-Laws

- 12.1 This Constitution may be amended from time to time as necessary by resolution of the National Council in general meeting. A majority of at least 75% of the votes cast at such meetings shall be required to approve any amendments.
- 12.2 District Councils and Branches may make by-laws or develop rules or constitutions to govern the operations of such Districts or Branches. Such by-laws rules or constitutions shall be deemed to include this Constitution, shall be approved by the Management Committee before coming into force and shall not be inconsistent with this Constitution. Should any conflicts arise, this Constitution shall take precedence.
- 12.3 Proposed amendments to this Constitution shall be circulated to members entitled to vote on such amendments at least 28 days prior to the meeting to consider the amendments.
- 12.4 No alterations may be made to this Constitution, or to any rules or by-laws made by Districts or Branches, which would in any way alter the charitable nature of the Association or which would result in the application of funds for other than charitable purposes.

13.0 New Zealand Cadet Forces Charter of Support

- 13.1 The Association acknowledges the support received through the New Zealand Defence Force and the obligations imposed on the Association and its Branches through the NZ Cadet Forces Charter of Support.
